Spring 1982

Law Alumni Newsletter, volume 1, number 2

Follow this and additional works at: http://scholarship.law.campbell.edu/newsletters

Recommended Citation

http://scholarship.law.campbell.edu/newsletters/2

This Newsletter is brought to you for free and open access by the Archives and Law School History at Scholarly Repository @ Campbell University School of Law. It has been accepted for inclusion in Alumni Newsletters by an authorized administrator of Scholarly Repository @ Campbell University School of Law.
Dear Campbell Alumni,

I am pleased to have this opportunity, in our second Alumni Newsletter, to inform you of developments at the School of Law, and of our plans for the future.

As some of you already know, I will be spending the 1982-83 academic year at Columbia University School of Law on a research leave. My primary work will involve study of the Wilmington Ten case, particularly the influence of interest groups and the media on public perceptions of the case. I also plan work in the areas of legal education, jurisprudence, and law firm planning.

I am grateful to the Trustees and administration for granting the leave, which allows me to achieve a goal I discussed with President Wiggins before assuming the position of dean in 1975. I am also grateful to the faculty and each of you for helping to bring the School so rapidly to its present position, thereby making it possible for me to take advantage of this opportunity.

I will leave for New York in September and will return to the Creek during the summer of 1983. Bob Jenkins will serve as Acting Dean during my absence. A primary concern in planning for my leave has been to assure that the quality of the advocacy program remains at its high level while Professor Jenkins allocates so much as one-half of his time to additional administrative duties. We believe the addition to the faculty of Tom Anderson, whose biographical sketch follows, and devotion of 100% of his time to the advocacy program during the fall semester will keep the program at the forefront of advocacy programs in American law schools.

The composition of the faculty, but not its direction, will change slightly during the 1982-83 school year. After making substantial contributions to the life of the School of Law, Professors Divine and Holley will be leaving the faculty, Dr. Divine to return to Winston-Salem and Professor Holley to pursue nonacademic interests. They will be missed, but the rest of the faculty returns and three excellent new members will join the faculty this year.

Professor RICHARD A. LORD will join the Campbell faculty following service on the law faculties of the University of North Dakota and Indiana University-Indianapolis. He was voted outstanding new professor during his year at Indiana, and in 1979-80 he was recognized by Delta Theta Phi legal fraternity as that organization's Outstanding Law Professor in the Nation. He received his undergraduate degree from Alfred University and served there as a graduate teaching assistant in English before enrolling in law school at Memphis State, where he graduated first in his class and was Editor-in-Chief of the Law Review. He attended Yale Law School on a graduate fellowship and received his LL.M. there in 1976. A member of Phi Kappa Phi and Order of the Coif, he is the author of several major law review articles in the areas of contract, commercial and banking law; of a monograph, North Dakota Contract Law; and of the book, How to Prepare For the Multistate Bar Exam. A consultant to several banks, (continued on page 5)
LAW DAY CELEBRATED

On Thursday, April 8, Chief Judge Naomi Morris of the North Carolina Court of Appeals delivered the Law Day address to nearly two hundred students, judges, faculty, alumni, and other guests of the School of Law at the Mission Valley Inn in Raleigh.

Judge Morris' remarks focused on the theme "Freedom Under the Law--Not Freedom from the Law." "Without obligations under the law, there can be no freedom," said the Chief Judge.

She also talked about the "veritable explosion of rights" which this country has seen over the past several years. "One reason for the crowded court dockets and backlog of cases is that so many matters are being litigated which did not even get to the courts twenty years ago, or even ten years ago." Some of the examples given by Judge Morris were rights of the elderly and youth.

Other examples were given of areas in which the use of the word "rights" has gone far afield from our forefathers' concept and has resulted in cheapening the concept of rights. Several examples were cited as cases of actual litigation: the "right" of sports fans to food that is reasonably priced and prepared well at sports events; the "right" of a young man to have his parents provide him with certain educational opportunities; and the "right" of Washington Redskins fans to watch their team compete in the Super Bowl (which was allegedly foiled by the referee's decision on a key pass play).

"The purpose of Law Day," according to Judge Morris, "is to foster a respect for law and understanding of its very essential role in the life of every citizen in these United States. . . . The legal profession has a clear obligation always to remember and emphasize that justice comes as an end result only when individuals recognize that law is given force and efficacy only when freedoms are balanced with responsibility."

LAW ALUMNUS WRITES BOOK ON PHARMACY LAW

L. Edward Hickmon left his pharmacy practice in 1977 to attend law school at Campbell. After receiving his law degree in 1980, he combined his training and education in the writing of a book dealing with pharmacy law.

"Pharmacy Practice for Trial Lawyers is a book really designed as an overview of pharmacy practice for attorneys to acquaint them with the practice of pharmacy," says Hickmon. Published in December, 1981, by the Harrison Publishing Company, Pharmacy Practice contains an overview of such regulations as the Drug Enforcement Act, the Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act, the Controlled Substances Act, and the Poison Prevention Packaging Act. Antitrust implications of pharmacies and state legislation affecting them are also discussed.

According to Ed, the practice of pharmacy is in "a state of flux." Current controversies which are affecting the profession--such as the state drug product selection laws, the problems of third-party reimbursement programs (including Medicaid), and administrative searches of pharmacies by governmental authorities--are factors contributing to this condition and are presented in his book from both a pharmaceutical and a legal point of view.

Other practical problems with which he deals include the process of dispensing medications pursuant to the prescription orders, including the processes of reading and interpreting the prescription order itself. Various problems that arise in the transmission of medication orders are discussed from the point of view of one who deals daily with such problems and the possible legal ramifications stemming from them are presented from the point of view of the attorney. The very important areas of adverse drug reactions and drug interactions are presented in such a manner that makes them understandable without extensive knowledge of human physiology.

Ed Hickmon is uniquely qualified to write a book such as this. He attended the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill and graduated with a B.S. degree in pharmacy in 1965. He has had extensive experience in retail pharmacy, including ownership of his own practice in Wilmington, N.C.

Ed entered Campbell University School of Law as a member of its second graduating class where he was a charter member of Delta Theta Phi law fraternity and the Campbell Law Review. He is a member of the N.C. Pharmaceutical Association, the N.C. Bar Association, and the American Bar Association. He currently lives in Greenville, N.C., where he is employed by Rite Aid, Inc.
CHARTER CLASS DIPLOMAS

After the charter class graduated in the spring of 1979, administrators at the School of Law redesigned the J.D. diplomas to indicate that the law students graduated upon the recommendation of the law faculty. In addition, the signature of Dean Davis, rather than that of the undergraduate dean, began appearing on the J.D. diplomas in 1980.

So that all Campbell law diplomas would have the same appearance, the School of Law reprinted the diplomas for the members of the charter class in order to incorporate these changes. One feature which will remain unique about the charter class diplomas is the fact that they will always be the only set to read "Campbell College."

A number of charter graduates have picked up their new diplomas while visiting the law school over the past several months. The revised diplomas were mailed to the others in the charter class on May 24. If you have not received yours, please let us know.

DELTA THETA PHI SCHOLARSHIP

The Bryan Senate of the Delta Theta Phi Law Fraternity at Campbell University School of Law is establishing a permanent law scholarship fund. The fund, entitled the Hosea M. Jackson and George M. Jackson Delta Theta Phi Scholarship Fund, honors Hosea M. Jackson and George M. Jackson of Sanford, North Carolina.

Hosea M. Jackson attended the Wake Forest School of Law. He began practice in Sanford in 1921 and also served as a prosecuting attorney, as Lee County Tax Attorney, as Sanford City Attorney and as a state legislator. He continues an active practice.

George M. Jackson graduated from the Cumberland School of Law and joined his father in practice in Sanford. He is a life member of Delta Theta Phi and served as Dean of the Cumberland Senate. He has since played an instrumental role in organizing Delta Theta Phi senates at Campbell University School of Law, North Carolina Central School of Law, and the University of North Carolina School of Law. In addition to his legal practice, he currently serves as President of the Lee County Bar Association and Chairman of the Lee County Democratic Executive Committee.

At present, members of the Bryan Senate have raised over $1,500 toward the scholarship fund. A generous alumnus has offered to match contributions up to $2,500. However, to offer a significant scholarship each year, an amount of $5,000 to $10,000 is necessary to fund the scholarship corpus.

Delta Theta Phi wants to take full advantage of the matching offer and to fund fully the scholarship by next year. Any alumni desiring to participate in this worthwhile project are invited to send contributions payable to the "Jackson Delta Theta Phi Scholarship," Post Office Box 961 Buies Creek, North Carolina 27506.

ALUMNI DIRECTORIES MAILED

On May 13, Alumni Directories were mailed to all 262 Campbell Law Alumni. If you have not yet received yours, please let us know right away.

WATCH THIS SPACE FOR REVISIONS!!

Each edition of the Law Alumni Newsletter will devote this space to Alumni Directory corrections and revisions.

Each year after information is compiled on the most recent graduates, additional sheets will be sent to you for inclusion in your Directory. In addition, pages needing changes will be reprinted so that you may substitute them for those presently included - sort of like the CCH loose-leaf services. During the interim, information about changes will be included in the Newsletter to enable you to pencil in necessary revisions. Please help us to help you by providing us information about your changes by means of the forms provided at the back of the Alumni Directory.

CAMPBELL LAW OBSERVER

A system has now been devised to assure that Campbell law graduates who are not members of the North Carolina State Bar receive each month a copy of the Campbell Law Observer. If you have not begun receiving your copy, please let us know.
Professor RICHARD BRAUN is serving on the N.C. Attorney General's Criminal Code Revision Commission and as Reporter for the N.C. Superior Court Pattern Jury Instructions Committee.

DR. JOHN J. BRODERICK participated in a Law Professor Workshop and Colloquium co-sponsored by the ABA Standing Committee on National Security to honor Dean Rusk for his contribution to the development and study of international law. The workshop, entitled "Internal Conflicts: Dilemmas in International Law," was held at the University of Georgia on May 7-8. Dr. Broderick also participated in a workshop entitled "Law and Security in Outer Space" at the University of Mississippi Law Center on May 21-22. Again this summer, "The Chief" will lecture at the Notre Dame Law School Summer Law Program at the London School of Economics. His topic this year is "Historical Development of Arbitration: A Comparative Study: United States-United Kingdom.

Professor D. R. BUSTION will serve in a pro bono capacity this summer as a legal consultant to the Baptist Joint Committee on Public Affairs at the Committee's Washington headquarters. The Committee represents major Baptist groups in this country and Canada in the Capital, and studies religious liberty issues. Dr. James M. Dunn is the Executive Director. Professor Bustin will advise Dr. John Baker, the Committee's General Counsel, on litigation strategies and legislation.

Adjunct Professor CHARLES CASE has been recently appointed as Administrative Law Judge for the North Carolina Occupational Safety and Health Review Board; Mr. Case is one of seven such hearing officers, who serve on a part-time basis. He also has been recently re-elected as Chairman of the Wake County Zoning Board of Adjustment and as President of the Young Lawyers Division of the Wake County Bar Association.

Dr. J. STANLEY McQUADE will be going to Ireland this summer (May 18-26) "to settle the troubles there." After leaving Ireland, he will travel to Edinburg "in hopes of reconciling the conflicting oil claims between England and Scotland in the North Sea oil finds. Then on to London to counsel the Queen on the Falkland Islands dispute. Next year," he reports, "I hope to reconcile the Russians and Chinese."

THE PROSPECT

Law Alums have now been added to the mailing list for The Prospect, the quarterly Campbell news magazine. The next edition of The Prospect will be published in June. If you do not receive your copy, please let us know.

CASE FILES DESIRED

The School of Law is looking for additional case materials for use in the Trial Advocacy program. Some of you already have volunteered some prospects. As alums you have been through the program and have a pretty good idea of the kind of cases we can use: civil or criminal, not complicated, from 2 to 4 witnesses per side, a couple of fact questions to be resolved, and, ideally, a legal issue or two, with depositions, statements, photographs, medical records or other documents, and capable of being compressed (or expanded) into a six-hour trial.

If you have what you think we can use, we invite you to send it in or drop Professor Jenkins a line or give him a call. We will copy and return your materials and, if you so desire, we will change the name of the litigants to protect the innocent (or guilty). Your help will be greatly appreciated.

Our goal is to have about 30 or 40 different cases available to avoid annual repetition and yet provide for recycling every three years or so.
he is writing a book in the area of banking law for Warren, Gorham, and Lamont. He has taught a host of business-related courses and will teach contracts and advanced commercial law courses.

Visiting Assistant Professor of Law THOMAS P. ANDERSON will join the faculty this fall following two years of teaching and study at Temple University School of Law as an Abraham L. Freedman Fellow and Lecturer in Law. Professor Anderson, who will receive the LL.M. from Temple this summer, taught the Lawyering Process and Civil Trial Advocacy courses there. He also collaborated in the teaching of Torts, Interviewing and Counseling, and Bankruptcy, and served as Assistant General Counsel of the Temple Legal Clinic. A 1970 graduate of the University of Alabama, in 1975 he graduated with honors from Samford University's Cumberland School of Law, where he was a member of the law review. Following law school graduation he served as Special Assistant to the Mayor of Birmingham and before going to Temple engaged in solo and small-firm practice in Birmingham for five years. He will teach Trial and Appellate Advocacy and Practice and Local Government Law.

Teaching Economics of Law Practice in summer school will be visiting Assistant Professor RICHARD T. RODGERS. He has practiced law for the last eleven years in Highlands, North Carolina. A member of the Florida and North Carolina bars, he received his undergraduate and law degrees from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. A national leader in the rapidly expanding field of computer utilization in the legal profession, he is a frequent state and national lecturer on law office microcomputer applications. He has published several articles on the subject, is technical editor of The Lawyer's Microcomputer, is author/creator of microcomputer software utilized in real estate closings, and is co-authoring a book on substantive systems for residential real estate closings. He serves as Chairman of the Technology Division of the American Bar Association's Economics of Law Practice Section, chairs that Section's Personal Computer Seminars Committee, and serves as a Council member and secretary of the North Carolina Bar Association's Real Property Section.

We are applying for a grant which will allow Professor Rodgers to work with our present faculty in developing innovative programs involving utilization of microcomputers in law schools and law practice. We hope to integrate different computer applications into each year of the instructional program. It has been predicted that over 90% of all law offices will be utilizing computers in the 1990s, and while we anticipate that by then almost all students matriculating at Campbell will possess some degree of computer literacy, at present most of our faculty and students do not. We consider it our responsibility to obtain some expertise in this rapidly expanding field, and the next newsletter should inform you of our more fully developed plans. Please let Dean Currin know if you think we should formulate a basic microcomputer CLE course for our alumni.

With the recent graduation of the 90 members of the Class of 1983 our alumni ranks have swelled to 352. I hope that all of you look forward to returning to the Creek as much as I, and that we will be back together soon.

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 2 IS HOMECOMING!
Mark your calendars now. See next edition of Newsletter for details.
CONGRATULATIONS to the 90 Graduates of the CLASS OF 1982!

ALUMNI

JOBS OPPORTUNITIES

82-84 College of Law
University of Cincinnati
Cincinnati, OH 45221
(513)475-6620
Placement Director--salary $14,629 -- $21,944. M.A. in relevant area; experience in commercial real estate and other business transactions. Forward a resume or other information to address above.

82-82 Raleigh Firm
P.O. Box 1046
Raleigh, NC 27611
Established Raleigh firm seeking associate now. Disclosing academic background? required: experience in commercial real estate and other business transactions. Forward a resume or other information to address above.

82-81 Hilary Daughtery, Atty. at Law
P.O. Box 30204
Raleigh, NC 27622
(919)781-2079
Office-sharing with solo practitioner (civil practice) in Crabtree Valley area. Partnership potential.

82-79 Thompson and Knight
2300 SunTrust National Bank Building
Dallas, TX 75201
(214)655-7500
Associate positions available in fall, 1982. Send resume to Emily Shields, Recruitment Coordinator, at address above.

82-78 Hurt, Richardson, Garner, Todd
100 Peachtree Center Harris Tower
Atlanta, GA 30308
(404)252-1100
General practice firm of 57 attorneys seeking 13 associates for fall of 1983. Send resume to Susan McAvoy, Recruitment Coordinator, at address above.

82-77 Barium Springs Home for Children
P.O. Box 150
Barium Springs, NC 28010
(704)872-4159
Planned Giving Officer, Preference expressed for Presbyterian church structure. Contact Mr. Carl Frazier, Executive Director.

82-76 Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher
2029 Century Park East
Los Angeles, CA 90067
(213)356-8500
General practice firm of 57 attorneys seeking 13 associates for fall of 1983. Send resume to Susan McAvoy, Recruitment Coordinator, at address above.

82-75 Frink, Foy and Gainey
P.O. Box 326
Shallotte, NC 28459
(919)457-5284 -- (919)754-4934
General practice firm with offices in Shallotte and Southport has opening for associate in Shallotte to begin work in fall of 1982. Contact Mr. Henry G. Foy.

82-74 Crowell and Moring
1100 Connecticut Ave., N.W.
Washington, DC 20036
8-10 Associate positions with 91- attorney firm available in fall of 1983. Salary for new associates in 1983 was $26,000. To apply, submit resume to law school placement office by Sept. 15.

82-73 Daniel Taylor
Attorney at Law
127 South Queen Street
Kinston, NC 28501
(919)522-4914
Associate position with solo practitioner available immediately. Send resume to Mr. Taylor.

82-71 Southern University School of Law
675 S. Morewood Ave.
Los Angeles, CA 90005
(213)738-6871
Director of student and Alumni Career Placement Program. Previous experience in law placement or recruitment is required. Send resume to Assistant Dean Sandra Cooper at address above.

82-70 Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher
and Rhoads
919 Third Avenue
New York, NY 10022
(212)363-0650
Associate positions available in fall of 1983. Submit resume to Patricia M. Ferguson, Legal Hiring Administrator.

82-67 Montgomery, McCracken, Walker
and Rhoads
Philadelphia, PA 19102
(215)363-0650
Associate positions available in fall of 1983. Submit resume to Lorraine Bissell, Hiring Coordinator.

82-65 Lewis and Rose
First Interstate Bank Plaza
Phoenix, AZ 85003-1899
(602)262-5535
Associate positions available in fall of 1983. Salary approximately $33,000 plus reasonable travel and moving expenses. Preference expressed for top 20% of class and law review or some equivalent writing experience. Submit resume to Lewis Rose before September 2.

82-64 Trenam, Simmons, Kemper, Scharf,
Barkin, Frye and O'Neil
260 First Federal Tower
P.O. Box 1102
Tampa, FL 33601
(813)222-6767
39 attorney litigation, corporate tax, and real estate firm seeking associates for fall of 1983. Preference expressed for top 10% and members of law review or similar. Send resume, transcript, and writing sample to Richard M. Leiser, Hiring Partner.

82-61 Mahoney, Hadlow, and Adams, P.A.
Barnett Bank Building
100 Laura Street
P.O. Box 4099
Jacksonville, FL 32201
(904)364-1100
39 attorney general business law practice seeking permanent associates for fall of 1983. Salary approximately $27,000. Send resume to Michael Hughes, Recruiting Chairman, by November 1.

82-60 Hale and Dorr
60 State Street
Boston, MA 02109
(617)374-2000
158 attorney general practice firm with branch office in Washington, D.C. seeking associates for fall of 1983. Salary approximately $32,000 plus $1,000 starting bonus.

82-59 United States Court of Appeals
Fifth Judicial Circuit
600 Camp Street, Room 109
New Orleans, LA 70130
(504)449-2780
40 judicial clerkships available in fall of 1983. Preference expressed for "relatively high academic achievement and experience in legal writing and research. Whoer gained clinical experience in active practice, in law school staff research positions, in academic work, or on the staff of law school publications." Apply directly to individual judges.

82-58 United States Court of Appeals
Fifth Judicial Circuit
600 Camp Street, Room 109
New Orleans, LA 70130
(504)449-2780
40 judicial clerkships available in fall of 1983. Preference expressed for "relatively high academic achievement and experience in legal writing and research. Whoever gained clinical experience in active practice, in law school staff research positions, in academic work, or on the staff of law school publications." Apply directly to individual judges.

82-56 United States Court of Appeals
Fifth Judicial Circuit
600 Camp Street, Room 109
New Orleans, LA 70130
(504)449-2780
40 judicial clerkships available in fall of 1983. Preference expressed for "relatively high academic achievement and experience in legal writing and research. Whoever gained clinical experience in active practice, in law school staff research positions, in academic work, or on the staff of law school publications." Apply directly to individual judges.

82-55 United States Court of Appeals
Fifth Judicial Circuit
600 Camp Street, Room 109
New Orleans, LA 70130
(504)449-2780
40 judicial clerkships available in fall of 1983. Preference expressed for "relatively high academic achievement and experience in legal writing and research. Whoever gained clinical experience in active practice, in law school staff research positions, in academic work, or on the staff of law school publications." Apply directly to individual judges.

82-54 United States Court of Appeals
Fifth Judicial Circuit
600 Camp Street, Room 109
New Orleans, LA 70130
(504)449-2780
40 judicial clerkships available in fall of 1983. Preference expressed for "relatively high academic achievement and experience in legal writing and research. Whoever gained clinical experience in active practice, in law school staff research positions, in academic work, or on the staff of law school publications." Apply directly to individual judges.

82-53 United States Court of Appeals
Fifth Judicial Circuit
600 Camp Street, Room 109
New Orleans, LA 70130
(504)449-2780
40 judicial clerkships available in fall of 1983. Preference expressed for "relatively high academic achievement and experience in legal writing and research. Whoever gained clinical experience in active practice, in law school staff research positions, in academic work, or on the staff of law school publications." Apply directly to individual judges.

82-52 United States Court of Appeals
Fifth Judicial Circuit
600 Camp Street, Room 109
New Orleans, LA 70130
(504)449-2780
40 judicial clerkships available in fall of 1983. Preference expressed for "relatively high academic achievement and experience in legal writing and research. Whoever gained clinical experience in active practice, in law school staff research positions, in academic work, or on the staff of law school publications." Apply directly to individual judges.
ANOTHER McQUADE SPECTACULAR
SOON TO BE PUBLISHED

August 1 is the date scheduled for the publication of Dr. J. Stanley McQuade's newest masterpiece. Entitled Jurisdictions: The Primrose Path to Juristic Wisdom, this book is designed for practicing lawyers and consists of plays, reviews, cartoons, and even a ballet, all of which Dr. McQuade insists are an absolute must if one is ever going to get anywhere in the law.

The contributors include such well-known authorities as 'Mad Mike' O'Houlihan and Iggy O'Flynn; and even our own R. Wilson Day makes an appearance (in Heaven, would you believe).

TWO CAMPBELL LAWYERS RUNNING FOR STATE LEGISLATURE

Two graduates of Campbell University School of Law are seeking election to the North Carolina General Assembly.

GREG GRIFFIN, Class of 1979, petitioned to become the lone Republican candidate for one of three state House seats in the 12th House District. He submitted to the Sampson County Board of Elections petitions bearing over 2000 signatures of registered Republicans in the district, composed of Sampson, Bladen and Pender counties. He hopes to unseat State Representative G. Ronald Taylor, D-Bladen.

SOL MARSHALL, Class of 1980, is running for one of three state Senate seats in the 14th Senate District. Seven candidates, including Sol, will be competing in the June 29 Democrat primary for a position on the November ballot. The name of only one incumbent, Joe Johnson, will appear on that ballot. This is Sol's second try for the honor of representing Wake, Harnett, and Lee counties in the North Carolina Senate.

COMMENCEMENT 1982

On Monday, May 10, the ninety members of the Class of 1982 graduated at a beautiful, outdoor commencement ceremony. The Honorable James Hunt, Governor of North Carolina, delivered the Commencement Address. Governor Hunt extolled the virtues of private education and urged Baptists to continue to support their colleges and universities.

On Sunday, May 9, the prospective graduates received their doctoral hoods at the traditional Law School Recognition Ceremony. The principal speaker, Dr. Hugh Divine, humorously recounted some of the ups and downs of law school life as much for the benefit of the graduates' families as for the benefit of the graduates themselves. Dean Davis congratulated the class and wished them well, and charter graduate Dave Stanley presented the members of the Class of 1982 with their alumni directories.

SUMMER SCHOOL UNDERWAY

On Monday, May 24, sixty-two students registered for Campbell's summer Performance Based Admissions Program. These students will be taking Personal Property, taught by Professor Pat Hetrick, and Constitutional Law, taught by Professor William E. Martin.

Students achieving a grade of 75 in each course will be admitted to the first-year class in the fall as regular students. Students not achieving that grade level will be placed on the waiting list.

Forty students registered for the regular summer school program. This summer the following courses are being taught: Commercial Law (Professor Lewis); Family Law (Professor Massey); Income Taxation (Professor Loftis); and Legal Economics (Professor Rodgers).
CLASS NOTES

Class of 1979

Captain WILBERT EDGERTON got married on February 20. His wife is Gigi. Wilbert is Area Defense Counsel, U.S. Air Force JAG, Myrtle Beach AFB, S.C.

REX GORE is a candidate for the office of District Attorney for the 13th Judicial District, which is composed of Brunswick, Bladen, and Columbus Counties.

CINDY HUNTSBERRY and husband Alan are expecting their first child in late August.

ALAN PITTMAN became associated with the Fayetteville law firm of Anderson, Broadfoot, Anderson, Johnson and Anderson in February. Alan formerly was practicing with Gardner H. Altman, Jr.

GARY RAGLAND has left the firm of Dobson and Ragland and is now in solo practice in Smithfield.

DAVE STANLEY’s daughter Karin ("Kin") graduated from Campbell University School of Law on May 10.

STUART N. WATLINGTON has left his practice with Raven and Parker in Greensboro to join the general practice firm of Blackwell, Farmer and Watlington, 109 West Main Street, P.O. Box B, Yanceyville, NC 27379 (919)694-4361. Because he will be only 30-35 miles from Greensboro, he wanted everyone to know he is still interested in handling cases in Greensboro.

Class of 1980

BILL BOST is now General Counsel for the N.C. Cemetery Association, President of the Moore County Heart Association, and an officer in the Sandhills Baptist Association.

LYNN COLEMAN recently started a solo practice in Onslow County. Business can be referred to Lynn at P.O. Box 395, Richlands, NC 28574 (919)324-2346.

HUGH M. CURRIN has been appointed to a special committee of the N.C. State Bar for attorneys’ trust accounts.

Captain KEN IREK is working on his LL.M., concentrating in taxation, at N.Y.U. Ken is chief of Legal Assistance for U.S. Army JAG at Ft. Monmouth, N.J.

DICKIE JONES and wife Jill had a daughter, Rachael Rhodes, on March 1.

JEFF KARVER and wife Chris have a new son, John Kolbe Karver, born in December.

JIM LEA got married in June of 1981 to Catherine. Jim is still with the N.C. Attorney General's office dealing with antitrust, contracts, PCB litigation, and criminal appeals.

KIRK RANDLEMAN jokingly reports that he is devoting a great deal of his time to helping DAVID WHITE in his practice.

Captain RANDY SIGLEY and wife Rhonda have a new son, Randy II, age 10 months. Randy is with Army JAG stationed at Ft. Still, Oklahoma.

Class of 1981

GAIL BODENSTEIN recently became associated with the law firm of Gellis and Melinger, 2 Pennsylvania Plaza, Suite 2480, New York, N.Y. 10021 (212)564-6530.

GARY CLEMMONS will be leaving his clerking position with U.S. Senior District Judge John Larkins on June 1 to become an Assistant U.S. Attorney for the Eastern District of N.C.

GIACOMO GHISALBERTI is chaplain for the Columbus County bar.

FREDRIC HALL reports that he is getting married in August.

LEX WATSON married Linda Jane Bare on April 17. Lex is now working with Harvest Corporate Services in Durham.

Campbell University School of Law
Post Office Box 158
Buies Creek, North Carolina 27506