MESSAGE
FROM THE DEAN

On July 1, 2006, I was honored to become Campbell Law School's fourth dean. This great school and its great heritage pulled me away from my native Texas and my position as a professor at Baylor Law School. It's a move I've not regretted. Campbell Law School is an exciting place to be!

This year marks a milestone in Campbell Law School's history, as we celebrate THIRTY YEARS of the finest legal education in the country. We've now educated a generation of lawyers, with 2800 alumni in 39 states and six foreign countries. Our alumni are the yardstick by which we measure our law school, and it's doing very well. As I've traveled across the state these last several months, I've heard these words time and again, from all quarters,

"YOU'RE PRODUCING THE BEST LAWYERS IN THE STATE."

This year, once again, Campbell Law led the state of North Carolina on the July 2006 bar exam with a 97% passage rate. Our ten graduates who took the bar exam in five other states had a 100% passage rate. This success is directly attributable to a hard-working, talented faculty, a demanding curriculum, and our dedicated students.

The demanding nature of our curriculum translates well into the demanding practice of law. Whether our graduates serve in the government, in the courtroom or in the boardroom, they excel.

OUR STUDENTS AND GRADUATES ARE MAKING THEIR MARK ON OUR PROFESSION, AND DOING IT WELL.

We hope you will consider hiring our students and graduates.

Very best,

Melissa A. Essary
Dean and Professor of Law
OUR VISION:
The School of Law is a highly demanding, purposely small, intensely personal community of faculty and students whose aim, guided by transcendent values, is to develop lawyers who possess moral conviction, social compassion, and professional competence, and who view the practice of law as a calling to serve others and to create a more just society.
